McCord Stewart Museum Montréal

Activity Sheet

UNDERSTANDING AND BUILDING OUR WORLD AND OUR STORIES TOGETHER

The McCord Stewart Museum's programs foster an appreciation and understanding of the topics, stories and objects, works of art, cultural goods and documents that make up the Museum's collections. Through participatory approaches and citizen-based perspectives, the Museum's educational programs seek to get visitors involved in their communities to help build a fairer society.

TRICKSTER

PARTICIPATORY WORKSHOP AT THE MUSEUM

Length: 60 minutes
Target audience: Preschool – 1st cycle of Elementary school – School daycare services
Educational areas: Personal development (Ethics and Religion) – Arts

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY

Brilliant, animated, and sometimes mischievous, the Trickster is a key figure in many cultures around the world, including Indigenous lore. Through a story and fun and dynamic activities, participants discover the Trickster archetype that broke established codes and left a surprising mark on our contemporary world. Participants will look to the multidimensional character to draw their very own Trickster.
